Description:

IoTIFY is industry's first cloud-based IoT simulation platform helping devops build scalable IoT Applications handling Millions of connected devices.

Unlike the web which is meant for humans, IoT systems are built for machines. Therefore, traditional web testing tools perform poorly when it comes to testing IoT systems at scale. IoTIFY redefines the load testing by introducing the concept of device models, which can be fully customized with Javascript. Say hello to truly intelligent system testing in the cloud.
