3. Industry of Things World USA, San Diego, CA, March 7 - 8, 2019

Listing details

Reference Number: RF372160

Common

Description:

Coming back for the 4th year, Industry of Things World USA focuses on the impact of the industrial IoT on business models and production processes across all major industries. This event is part of the award-winning Industry of Things World global event series and has turned into the meeting point for senior executives who want to deepen their knowledge and broaden their network in the Industrial Internet. With a special focus on automation, M2M communication, interoperability, analytics, new business models, this is the must-attend industrial event. Some business topics for 2019 include: supply chain 4.0, smart remote services, legacy systems and new technology (blockchain, 5g, Edge, Node, Fog). Technical topics include: automation, MES/MOMs and robotics, cognitive manufacturing, deep analytics, predictive maintenance and IIoT infrastructures.

Date: March 7 - 8, 2019

Location: San Diego, CA

Speakers: Rockwell Automation, Uber, Accenture, Google

register

Posted: 6 years ago