

The 19th Annual Logistics CIO Forum Europe

Listing details

Reference Number: RF992786

Common

Description:

Advancing technology. New market entrants. Changing business models. Increasing customer demands. Logistics has never before faced the level of change that it does today. While monumental industry-wide shifts represent significant risk to industry incumbents, there is a tangible opportunity for 3PLs that can adapt and embrace change.

Join senior IT, digital and technology leaders from the world's biggest and most advanced LSPs. Discuss the changing role of technology, the evolving responsibility of the CIO and how to adopt the latest technology to enable winning customer experiences.
