Description:

Unitralis will be hosting the 2nd Blocktech Connect all-day conference on January 28, 2020 in downtown Hamilton, Ontario at the David Braley Centre at 100 Main St W.

The primary focus of this year's conference is to expand beyond blockchain technology to include innovation such as Artificial Intelligence(AI), and the Internet of Things(IoT). Of course still with an eye on unity in the decentralized world.

This year's theme is "How to thrive in a borderless, decentralized and localized world leveraging Blockchain, AI, and IoT" to stay current and relevant to ensure greater business success.

By bringing together industry leaders to present on the aforementioned theme, it is the goal of this conference to provide experiences that will inspire, spark, and ignite innovation within the community in and around Hamilton, Southern Ontario, and beyond.
